FIFTH IMPRESSION (revised).

The New Psychology: and its Relation to Life.

By A. G. TANSLEY. (Now ready.) 10s. 6d.

"It is difficult to do anything but advise all who take even a slight interest in the mind of man, in politics, sociology, education, religion, or art, to buy the book and read every word of it . . . between this book and all previous expositions of the Freudian doctrine there is a world of difference . . . the book is inspired by a stoic and noble optimism."—Nation.

Machinery of the Mind.

By VIOLET M. FIRTH. Foreword by A. G. TANSLEY, F.R.S. Ready Shortly. 3s. 6d.

This book aims not so much at the orderly setting forth of the elements of psychology, as at the planting of certain fundamental concepts in untrained minds to serve as a basis for future study.

BASIL BLACKWELL SPRING ANNOUNCEMENTS.

ELIZABETHAN REPRINTS.

GREENE'S NEWES BOTH FROM
HEAVEN AND HELL. By B. R. 1593.

GREENE'S FUNERALLS.
By R. B. 1594.

In one Volume. Reprinted from the original editions, with notes by R. B. McKERROW. 7s. 6d. net.

¶ Greene's Newes is a satirical account of adventures of Robert Greene's ghost after his death. Probably by Barnaby Rich. The book, which is extremely scarce, has now been reprinted for the first time. Greene's Funeralls consist of verses in praise of Greene. Probably by Richard Barnfield.

JOHN WEEVER'S EPIGRAMMES IN THE OLDEST CUT AND NEWEST FASHION.
Reprinted from the original edition.

With notes by R. B. McKERROW. 7s. 6d. net.

¶ The only copy now known is in the Bodleian Library. The book has early reference to Shakespeare, Spenser, Drayton, Ben Jonson, Marston, and many of their contemporaries.

¶ The following book will be published by subscription. Edition limited to 500 numbered copies on hand-made Kelmscott paper. Printed at the Shakespeare Head Press. Price to subscribers, £2 2s.

After publication the price will be raised.

THE LOVES OF CLITOPHON AND LEUCIPPE.

Translated from the Greek of Achilles Tatius by WILLIAM BURTON. Reprinted for the first time from a copy now unique. Edited by STEPHEN GASELEE and H. F. B. BRETT-SMITH.

¶ Written by William Burton, brother to the author of The Anatomy of Melancholy, it is probable that this book was publicly burnt by archiepiscopal order, for it survives only in a single copy, printed by Thomas Creed in 1597. From that unique copy the reprint will be made.

Achilles Tatius was probably the last of the school of Greek novelists which flourished in late classical days, and his story is probably the best novel of them all in the sense that it most resembles the fiction of our own day.

These studies deal with Catholicism, Episcopacy, Sacraments, Inspiration, Atonement, New Testament Criticism, and the Historical Ground of Christian Belief.

THE AUTHORITY OF JESUS

By R. WINBOULT HARDING, B.D. Crown 8vo., cloth, 5s. net.

Jesus assures us that love lies at the very heart of things, and shows us that it is "practical politics" in human life. This book finds the secret of His authority in His life and personality rather than in His formal teaching.

CAN WE DISPENSE WITH CHRISTIANITY?

The Question; Its Crux and Implications for the Modern Mind. By F. W. BUTLER, author of "The Grounds of Christian Belief," "Personality and Revelation," &c. Crown 8vo., cloth, 5s. net.

"It was as a philosophical religion, appealing to reason and satisfying rational demands in a way unapproached by any other system of thought, that Christianity won its earliest triumphs, and the wheel of time and change has brought us to a time when only by exposition of its philosophical value can Christianity hope to win the thinking mind of the age."

THE SOCIAL IMPLICATIONS OF CHRISTIANITY

By JOHN LEE, M.A., M.Com.Sc., author of "Plain Economics," &c. Foreword by the BISHOP OF LICHFIELD. Crown 8vo., cloth, 4s. 6d. net.

A practical survey by a business man of Christian ethics applied to social and economic practice. The difficulties are not underrated, but Mr. Lee holds that the present system needs radical transformation and that our social life can be and ought to be ruled by the Christian law.

One of the most important books published on Reunion. Ready now.
